1. What amount of damages do you award the plaintiff John Vai against defendant Francis DeLuca

$ 30,000,000.00

Plaintiff John Vai versus Defendant St. Elizabeth's

2. Do you find by a preponderance of the evidence that Plaintiff John Vai recalled an act or acts of sexual abuse on or after June 20, 2006 that was inherently unknowable to him prior to June 20, 2006?

Yes

No

If the answer is yes, proceed to question number 3. If the answer is no, proceed to question number 4.

3. With regard to the act, or acts, of sexual abuse for which you answered yes in the preceding question, do you find by a preponderance of the evidence that defendant St. Elizabeth's was negligent in its retaining, supervising or controlling of Francis Deluca in a manner which proximately caused injury to the plaintiff? A Yes answer will be a finding for the plaintiff John Vai and a no answer will be a finding for defendant St. Elizabeth's.

Yes

No

Go to question 4.

4. With regard to the plaintiff's claim involving gross negligence, do you find by a preponderance of the evidence that the plaintiff has established all the elements of that cause of action as explained by the Court and found at pages 8 and 9 in the instructions. A Yes answer will be a finding for the plaintiff John Vai and a no answer will be a finding for defendant St. Elizabeth's.

Yes

No

5. If you answered yes to either question 3 or question 4, or both, what amount of damages do you award the plaintiff John Vai against defendant St. Elizabeth's. If you did not answer Yes to either 3 or 4, do not consider question 5.
